

Acknowledgements

First of all, I want to express my gratitude and debt to Joyce Marshall, my wife and partner, who has read this entire manuscript several times and made substantial suggestions for the rewriting of this work. I also want to acknowledge my deep debt to Søren Kierkegaard, H. Richard Niebuhr, Paul Tillich, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and Rudolf Bultmann and to Joseph Wesley Mathews, my teacher and mentor, who made the writings of these great theologians come alive for me. Many other friends and writers have assisted me in arriving at greater clarity. I will mention a few: Thomas Berry, Rudolf Otto, Marilyn French, Brian Swimme, John Shelby Spong, Riane Eisler, Harvey Jackins, Judith Plant, David Abram, Jon Kabat-Zinn, Charlene Spretnak, Jerry Mander, Theodore Roszak, Susan K. Langer, Herman Daly, John Cobb, Richard Feynman, John Dominic Crossan, Marcus Borg, Walter Wink, Nikos Kazantzakis, Heinrich Zimmer, Joseph Campbell, Huston Smith, D. H. Lawrence, Bernhard Anderson, and the list goes on
