

A Spirit-based Ethics

How Awe Inspires Social Transformation

Book Three in the Awe Series

Gene W. Marshall

Copyright © 2004 by Gene W. Marshall

Table of Contents

Introduction: What is a Spirit-based Ethics?

Part One: The Presupposition of Essential Humanity

1. The End of the World as We Know It
2. The Whole Page of Reality
3. Human Essence and the Social Cocoon

Part Two: The Presupposition of Essential Society

4. The Essential Processes of Every Society
5. Commonality, Singularity, and Intimacy
6. Human, Biological, and Physical Processes

Part Three: Essence and Social History

7. Society: Appropriate and Inappropriate
8. Three Types of Social Change
9. Democracy, Theocracy, and Fascism
10. The Unsolved Mystery of the Sustainable Society
11. Beyond Civilization
12. Beyond Daniel Quinn
13. Fallen Humanity, Restraint, and Healing
14. Envisioning Thoroughgoing Social Transformation

Part Four: Envisioning an Appropriate Economy

15. Key Components of Economic Transformation
16. Human/Earth Balance
17. After Fossil Fuels
18. A Steady-state Economy
19. Ending Poverty
20. The Regional Commonwealth
21. The Promise of Worker Cooperatives

Part Five: Envisioning an Appropriate Culture

22. Key Components of Cultural Transformation
23. Communal/Personal Balance
24. Voluntary Simplicity
25. Honoring Human Diversity
26. Feminine/Masculine Balance
27. Open Interreligious Dialogue
28. Humans as Full Members of Nature
29. Ethical Authenticity
30. Guided Creativity

Part Six: Envisioning an Appropriate Polity

31. Key Components of Political Transformation
32. Democratic Responsibility
33. Consensus Decision Making
34. Interregional Multilateralism
35. Bioregional Empowerment
36. Contextual Ethics

Part Seven: Strategies for Effective Social Transformation

- 37. Top Down and Bottom Up
- 38. The Rise, Contribution, and Decline of a Social Movement
- 39. Political Power and Movement Policy
- 40. The Primacy of Cultural Strategies
 - a. Movement Building
 - b. Mass Education
 - c. Modeled Options
- 41. The Centrality of Political Strategies
 - a. Electoral Politics
 - b. Legal Enforcement
 - c. Geographical Restructuring
- 42. The Establishing of Economic Strategies
 - a. Equitable Distribution
 - b. Institutional Reformation
 - c. Ecological Restoration

Afterword: The Contemplative Activist

Appendix: A Method of Triangular Modeling.